“Travel Study” – Courses

There will be an open meeting for all faculty interested in designing “Travel Study” courses for the 2001-2002 academic year on

Thursday, February 22nd at 12:30 p.m. in Union 308, College Union

Facilitators: Barbara Millard, Anna Allen, Brandyn Muller

If you would like to explore the possibility of taking your students “on site” as part of their study with you during the next academic year, or in a summer session, come to this meeting where “veterans” will share their experience in conducting such courses in English literature, criminal justice, language study and art. A travel-study program can make international as well as domestic travel accessible for many of our students because tuition costs are not an expense, only the travel is. We look forward to discussing the opportunities with you.

Campus News is distributed weekly to foster communication and encourage information sharing among University departments. Articles submitted are the responsibility of their authors alone and do not imply an opinion on the part of La Salle University or the Department of Mail and Duplicating Services.

Funding Board Minutes – February 8, 2001

Members present: G. Lodes, L. McCloskey, A. Karras, N. Kirby, R. Palladino, B. Nyce, J. Buch, C. Kazmierczak (co-chairperson)

Members Absent: M. Allen, M. Badstubner, R. Messa, P. Mosteller, K. Odom, K. Graham (co-chairperson)

Board Business I/Daffodil Days:

A student requested $200.00 to facilitate a program titled Daffodil Days. The program is a campaign sponsored by the American Cancer Society. The students will sell daffodils on campus to help raise money and cancer awareness. The proceeds benefit cancer patient services, education and research. The group is asking assistance for publicity and supplies.

Motion: R. Palladino to allot $200.00 to the organization.

Second: N. Kirby

Vote: In favor: 7 Opposed: 0 Abstain: 0

Board Business II/New York City Trip to attend the musical Chicago:

A Resident Assistant is sponsoring the trip to New York City to see the musical Chicago. He is requesting $500.00 from the Funding Board. He is seeking assistance from RSA and Area Governments. The cost of the ticket for students will be $35.00.

Motion: G. Lodes to allot $500.00 to the program.

Second: B. Nyce

Vote: In favor: 7 Opposed: 0 Abstain: 0

Board Business III/CAACURH Conference:

The members of the Resident Student Association are requesting $172.50 for the CAACURH (Central Atlantic Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls) Conference. The conference is held at the University of Delaware from February 23-25. The conference gathers students together to network and attend educational programming among other events.

Motion: L. McCloskey to allot $172.50 to the organization.

Second: A. Karras

Vote: In favor: 6 Opposed: 0 Abstain: 1

Board Business IV/Voting on New Funding Board Policies:

The members of the Funding Board discussed the new guidelines. The Board discussed some additional guidelines. The Board will ask organizations and student presenters to include an itemized breakdown of costs their proposed program will incur. The Board will also institute a rule which states that the Funding Board will not consider funding for transportation to formals and socials off-campus. The Board will require a more formal evaluation process of programs that would require programs supported by the Funding Board be evaluated for future reference.

Motion: G. Lodes to accept the new guidelines for the Funding Board.

Second: R. Palladino

Vote: In favor: 7 Opposed: 0 Abstain: 0

Curriculum Committee

Minutes of the LaSalle University Curriculum Committee for 12/14/00

Present: R. Nigro (Chair), E Giardino, F Tri Nguyen, W Wiegman, C Sheahan, R Palladino, B Millard, S DeTurk, J Baky, S Wiley, M Soven, L Colhocker, J Seltzer, G Bruce, P Brazina, J Wolf

Minutes

Review Minutes 11/16/2000. Minutes approved as written. (15 – Y, 2 – Ab)

Discussion Of Professional Option In Accounting

J Welsh presented the rationale for the change in course requirements for the professional option in Accounting. The present eight course requirement would be changed to six (6) required courses plus two (2) additional 400 level accounting electives with exception of ACC 450 (Cooperative education). Rationale for the curriculum change includes cataclysmic changes in the recognition of the skills students need to have for the field of accounting coupled with review of what the current courses provide. The proposal does not require additional staffing and does not call for any new courses to be offered.

The undergraduate committee of the School of Business (SBA) reviewed and unanimously approved the suggested changes. Discussion ensued regarding the cap of the Acc 380 seminar that is at 17 students. The recommendation of the SBA is to keep the cap at 17 due to the writing expected in the course and the end of semester project that is a main aspect of the seminar course.

Discussion regarding the proposed changes included J Seltzer stating that the changes make sense and P Brazina commenting that the change from Acc 380 from a required course to one of two senior electives is a good idea. There was consensus from the committee on the discussion.

Decision of vote to accept the proposed changes: 14 – yes, 0 – No, 0 – Abstain.

Proposal For The Consolidation Of Upper Division/Pathway Courses In World Religion

J. Kelly explained the rationale for a change to divide Religion 230 (Great Religions of the World into two (2) separate courses: Rel 231 (Buddhism, Hinduism, and other Religions from the Far East (3 cr.)) and Rel 232 (Judaism, Islam, and Other Religions from the Near East (3 cr.)). The change stems from anticipation for fewer sections of the upper division pathway courses stemming from the new core curriculum requirements.

Much discussion ensued about the course changes and the nature of the content covered in the two new courses.. S DeTurk questioned the efficacy of having Judaism and Islam in one course with Dr. Kelly stating that the courses will optimize the survey nature of the courses. Dr. Kelly stressed that the religion courses are all pathway courses that enables students to take any course at any time without needing a lower level course first. P Brazina expressed concern about teaching many religions in one course and the ability to have depth of the topics. Dr. Kelly stressed that the Department is aware of this concern and is working to ensure that faculty understand the segments of the religions they teach. R. Nigro stated that given the nature of a Catholic university that the Judaeo-Christian tradition should have some pre-eminence in the curriculum. Bro Tri questioned whether Confucianism and Taoism (in Rel 231) are actually religions. Dr. Kelly stated that they are philosophies but are considered to be religions of Japan and China.

B Millard stated that the Arts and Sciences curriculum committee reviewed and supported the changes, and expressed concern about the flattening of the 200 level and the effect that flattening can have on Religion as a major. She suggests that Religion may need to think about having 300 level offerings.

Other discussion ensued around the wording of religion versus tradition in the context of Buddhism and Taoism as they are considered by many to be philosophies rather than religions. R Nigro and S Wiley suggested using the term tradition rather than the word religion in the course description.

There was a motion to approve the change with the provision that Rel 231 (Buddhism, Hinduism, and other Religions from the Far East) be changed to a word that reflects tradition rather than religion. (14 – yes; 0 – No; 0 – Abstain).

Health Administration Program – Undergraduate Program

Anne Walsh presented the proposed curriculum in Health Administration by describing the current curriculum and then the desired changes. The proposed revision would 1) eliminate the current health Care Financial Management option 2) eliminate and then substitute the Health Care Law (HCA 371) course with a university course focused on ethics, corporate or social responsibility and 3) eliminate the internship in Health Administration and substitute it with a seminar in Health Administration. The new curriculum is designed as an interdisciplinary minor in Health Care Administration and would require students to enroll in four courses: HCA 370, LSU Ethics, HCA 459, & HCA 460.

S Wiley questioned if honor students ethics courses would satisfy the requirements for the major in lieu of those listed. A Walsh stated that comparable courses could be accepted in lieu of those listed. Z Wolf clarified that Nur 476 (Urban health: Families and Children), a possible elective, is available to students with no prior health care background. B Millard clarified that a student opting for this program could double 2 courses with the core.

There was a motion to approve the Health Administration Program. (14 – Yes; 0 – No, 0 – Abstain).

Meeting adjourned at 2:25 pm.

Health Advisory Committee Minutes January 30, 2001

Present: Lane B. Neubaer, Dina Oleksiak, Michael Imperato, Dan Yemin, Eleanor Reinhardt, Janice Beitz, Darlene Morrissey

Absent: Brooks Aylor, Trina Allen, Kate Campbell, Scott Tajirian, Christine Mickel

Guests: Mike Lopacki, Chris Kazmierczak, Joanna Leon

I. Meeting called to order at 3:00

II. Darlene Morrissey was welcomed by the Committee. She will be replacing Alexis Karras as a student representative due to conflicts in Alexis's schedule.

III. Mike Lopacki was invited to address the committee regarding the Health Advisory Committee's recommendations for Handicap Accessibility. Mr. Lopacki updated the committee on the progress that has been made as well as what is currently being initiated and what will be occurring in next year's budget regarding ADA compliance on campus. The committee gave Mr. Lopacki credit for what has been accomplished as well as suggestions as to priorities that still need to be addressed regarding accessibility issues. It was suggested that Mr. Lopacki attend a Health Advisory Committee meeting each year during Fall Semester before the budgeting process begins so he can take into account the Health Advisory Committee's recommendations as he draws up his budget for the following year. Mr. Lopacki also discussed the need for waiting until the 'master plan' is presented before some of the larger projects are initiated as the 'master plan' may address some of the issues identified. A summary of Mr. Lopacki's report is as follows:

A. AUTOMATED DOORS-

- Connelly Library, Bookstore and Holroyd side doors ADA modifications completed;
- St. Katherine's main entrance door to be completed by 5/31/01;
- Communication Center main entrance door by 5/31/01;
- North Dorm SDR access doors by 5/31/01;
- Wister door facing track ADA automation proposed '01-'02 fiscal year;
- St. Miguel and Intermissions' doors to be evaluated.
- College Hall and McShain doors awaiting master plan report.

B. POOL/HAYMAN

- Mr. Lopacki will investigate installation of a ramp between the pool and the locker room and for access to the weight/training rooms but this may be a long-term goal.

C. UNEVEN PAVEMENTS IN THE NORTH HALLS RESIDENCE COMPLEX

- Sections will be replaced beginning '01-'02 fiscal year. The committee specified this as one of the priority areas and Mr. Lopacki agreed.

D. ACCESS TO WISTER AND COMPUTER LAB

- Mr. Lopacki said they may be able to build a ramp and he will speak to Bob Levins about security/access issues with Wister.

E. OLNEY AVE. ENTRANCE

- Mr. Lopacki will attempt to install a handrail in this fiscal year; a ramp may have to wait for the Master Plan report. The committee stressed the handrail as a priority.

F. UNIVERSITY CHAPEL ACCESS

- Investigate feasibility of creating a corridor that could bypass the Chapel.

G. LONGER TERM GOALS

- ramp for the Main Quad,
- automated door for the St. Miguel SDR entrance,
- ramp for the pool
- feasibility of an elevator for College Hall.

- IV. Discussion about the possibilities of creating a non smoking policy in Backstage on programming nights was brought to the attention of Chris Kazmierczak and Joanna Leon. Chris informed the committee that if he plans a program through Student Affairs, he can specify a “no smoking” condition in Backstage. However, if it is a student initiated program, it is up to the student organizers to decide whether or not smoking is to be permitted. A recommendation was put forth by the HAC that when a student applies to reserve Backstage, the reservation form include an option for the event to be “smoke free”; if the student group checks this option, Union staff would post signs stating “This is a smoke-free event”. Joanna Leon will explore possibilities for “smoke free event” signs as well changing the reservation form to include a box to check off if the event is to be a “no smoking” event. Darlene Morrissey will bring this discussion to an SGA meeting to gauge reactions to these ideas. Other related suggestions include publishing a list that credits student groups who chose to have a smoke free event as well as checking with catering to see if they would be willing to offer a discount for a group that chose to go the “smoke free” route (Dina will follow up on this).
- V. The Committee discussed Alexis Karras’s suggestion for creating incentives for smoke free residence floors. Committee agreed that Ms. Karras’s proposal was a great idea but might be difficult to implement. A meeting has been set up for mid February with Dina Oleksiak & Lane Neubauer with Doug Kukta, Community Coordinator, Mark Badstubner and April Herring , Associate Directors of Community Services and Jessica Fenchel, Housing Services Coordinator along with Alexis Karras to discuss these ideas further as well as to discuss the feasibility of creating “no smoking” residence floor options.
- A. Committee will approach Jessica Fenchel to explore what options are available at this point to suggest smoke free and/or substance free housing for the 2001/ 2002 room lottery letter.
- B. Darlene informed the committee that when she was a freshman, the majority of her building (St. Neumann) was smoke free and it was her impression that there was a smoking policy for the building which discouraged smoking. Dan Yemin will look into the history of this and report back to the committee.
- VI. Health Fair (March 29th – 12:00 – 4:00) was discussed. Joanna will double check on the Union reservation for this. Darlene will approach the funding board. All committee members signed up for multiple tasks to help prepare for this event.
- VII. Meeting was adjourned at 4:15.

Respectfully submitted by Lane B. Neubauer Ph.D.

Memo To: Day Faculty
Memo From: Edward Koronkiewicz, FSC Assistant Registrar
Re: Spring 2001 Final Exams
Date: February 12, 2001

You are reminded that examination days, May 1st through May 7th, are part of the academic school year. All faculty are expected to be available for proctoring assignments during this time.

Final examinations should be given during the scheduled examination period and not the week preceding. This will help avoid any interference with the normal summative activities taking place in large part around campus that week.

Arrangements for other types of assessment should be carefully made so they do not conflict with the scheduled examination period or with course work in the weeks preceding exams. This includes Honors courses, Seminars, etc...

If you do not plan to give a written final examination during the scheduled examination days, please e-mail me at koronkie@lasalle.edu with the course(s) and section(s) involved. You may also use the bottom portion of this sheet to indicate the course(s) and section(s) involved and return the form to Br Edward - c/o Registrar's Office - Box 818 no later than Wednesday, February 28th. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Consider this.....

The Life of a University Professor:

Think big thoughts and teach bright, fresh and engaging students, who hang on your every word. Abundant time for reading and writing about ideas that press, probe, provoke, and enlighten.

The university life allows for a humane work schedule, with brief workdays, rather than the 9 to 5 grind in a heartless, bureaucratic corporation. Flexible schedule. Summers off.

You may be frustrated and discouraged when the practical realities clash with the idealized image of the life of a university professor.

Please join Lynne Texter, Associate Professor, Communication Department, and Janine Mariscotti, Assistant Professor, Sociology Department, for a presentation and discussion about the issues and implications of faculty stress and burnout for the self and the campus community.

Student Speaker

Commencement 2001

Graduating seniors from the day and evening divisions are encouraged to apply for selection as the student speaker for the Commencement 2001 Ceremony. A committee of students, faculty, and administrators will choose the speaker.

The content and style of presentation of the speech will be the primary criteria used by the selection committee. The delivery time of the speech must be no longer than five (5) to eight (8) minutes. A suggested norm is one typed (double-spaced) page per speaking minute.

One copy of the typed speech must be submitted to the University Life Office by 4:30 p.m. on Friday, February 23, 2001. Copies of the speeches will be provided to the members of the selection committee and they will determine the final pool of students to be invited for in-person auditions, which will be conducted in March. Students will be notified soon after Spring Break if they are among those selected for auditions.

Thanks for your attention and response to this invitation. If you have additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact the University Life Office, 307 Administration Center, ext. 1374.
